AFFILIATED UNIONS BOTH OF LABOR AND FARMERS CONDEMN ALL LAWLESSNESS

One of Biggest Meetings on Record Held by Central Union.

MANY SPEAKERS TELL OF ORGANIZATION NEED

Closer Cooperation Between Two Units is Stressed in Addresses.

The Central Labor Union held one of the largest meetings in its history last night, when in addition to the local delegates, representatives from six locals of the Farmer's union from Morgan and adjoining counties were in attendance. Sentiment was expressed by unionists, both of labor and of the farmers, and made as strong as language could speak against "all threats and all violence"; and any hint that could be construed to suggest destruction of property. The press reporter for the Central Labor Union was given special instructions, to make it absolutely clear to the public of Morgan and adjoining counties, through the medium of the Albany Decatur Daily, that, both the farmer's present, and the union men present, sitting in representative capacity, denounced in unmeasured terms those responsible for the recent outrages of violence, as practiced; whether it was on the persons of citizens of the state, or against their property rights.

The meeting went on record as favoring the passage of vigorous resolutions against "Night Riding" and "Whipping"; but for the sake of saving time it was agreed that the sense of the body be expressed in a motion denouncing all the recent lawlessness as practiced in Morgan and adjoining counties during the past two weeks. Agreeable to this President Gentry, recognized George M. Webb, who made such a motion which was quickly seconded by H. K. Laasch. On request a rising vote was called for by the chair and the motion passed unanimously amid cheers.

Speeches from Visitors
Caddo, Connaway, Oak Ridge, Austinville, Neals, and Oak Grove Farmer's unions were represented at the meeting last night. M. C. Vest, a former citizen of Albany, was the first speaker called, but he gave place to A. C. Watson, of Austinville. Mr. Watson emphasized "the absolute necessity of collective bargaining by labor of all classes." He declared he was a former coal miner, and said that in his day miners were "the worst treated of any class of workers." Mr. Vest, followed, saying the farmer's union repudiated the attempts of those "who sought to saddle the blame for night riding on the Farmer's Union." This speaker upheld the American Cotton Association, declaring its advice to farmers was identical with that given by the Farmer's Union.

Most of the delegates, however, unlike Mr. Vest, went on record as disapproving the American Cotton Association. Definite plans were discussed, looking to close cooperation of Farmer's unions and labor unions, especially in the matter of buying and selling farm products. Melvin Huston, being called on, said that every woman of the county should register and vote, and warned the workers that they must keep their organizations at 100% efficiency.

W. B. McCluskey, Vice President of the State Federation of Labor, asked three things of union labor, that it erect a Labor Temple in the Twin Cities; support cooperative stores; and eventually operate a union bank in this section.

J. H. Barnes, one of the Farmer's Union delegates, charged that a grain firm in this section, in the time of the war, bought corn from county farmers for 95 cents and locked it up until said firm got $2.50 per bushel for it. He said that such "middle men" must be eliminated.

SHOPMEN'S CONTRIBUTION SOARS ABOVE HUNDRED DOLLAR MARK

Shropshire Leads in Taking Pledges for the Cox-Roosevelt Campaign.

According to announcements made at the noon meeting held at the Louisville and Nashville shops yesterday, a total of nearly $125 has been subscribed and paid, by the shopmen for the Cox-Roosevelt fund. These figures represent incomplete returns. When the total amount subscribed is paid, and the pledges which are in sight are made, the final total will be fully $150.

The largest individual list turned in, was that of A. T. Shropshire, who accepted pledges mostly from the Planing Mill and Coach Carpenters. His completed list totals $57.00. Frank P. Frohoff's list contains the names of over 40, who pledged $1.00 each, about half of which has been paid in, according to the tabulated list shown in another column.

The Brass and Iron Foundry, which was canvassed by E. M. Johns, pledged and paid a total of $10.50. E. F. Wilson, for the Blacksmiths and Helpers, turned in $8.50 in cash. O. Otte, for the Boilermakers reported $8.25. The work of Mr. Frohoff was among the Machinists and Helpers, as was also that of Fred M. Sittason. Mr. Sittason so far has reported $8.00.

Quite a number of other pledges are expected to be sent in at an early date. The principal address made at the meeting yesterday was by W. H. Wilson, chairman of the Federated shop crafts. Mr. Wilson was introduced by R. S. McJilton, of the Car Carpenters.

REMEDY IS ACTION, NOT TALK, DECLARES PRESIDENT BARRETT

(International News Service) ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 19.—Declaring aid should be given the farmer in the present crisis and setting forth the helpless condition of the tillers of the soil and stating the remedy is action and not talk, Charles S. Barrett, president of the national Farmers union, has issued a statement with reference to the heavy slump in prices for cotton, wheat and other products of the soil.

His statement, in part, follows: "Because they are not sufficiently organized, or because they are split up into many camps, the farmers in the past few weeks have witnessed the crumbling of prices, have seen vast fortunes melt away and have helplessly watched, while special interests, determined to make a dollar buy twice as much of the products of the soil as it was capable of purchasing a year or even six months ago, have operated to the ruin of thousands of men who derived their living from agriculture. With the continued falling of prices the farmer is left the choice of abandonment of activity on the one hand or gradual but certain ruin on the other.

"The time has come when the farmer must take the bit in his own teeth and obtain for himself the reward he is entitled to. Thousands of bales of cotton are at the bottom of the sea, sunk by German submarines, but the purchasers of this cotton received 30 cents a pound for it while the producers were given a beggarly six or seven cents. The government took tender care of the purchasers by insuring the product, guaranteeing 30 cents a pound for all that was sunk or in other ways destroyed by the enemy, but the cotton grower of the South; the wheat grower of the northwest; the corn producer of the middle west; the potato grower of New England and the fruit producer of California kept on supplying the nation with material for clothing and food."

HARDING CALLED HAPPY HOOLIGAN OF U. S. POLITICS

(International News Service) EN ROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX, NASSUA, N. H., Oct. 19.—"Senator Warren G. Harding's constantly misunderstood attitude would seem to make him the 'Happy Hooligan' of American politics, hardly fitted for the serious business of the Presidency," Governor Cox declared in a statement issued here today.

VOTERS SCHOOL TO END WEDNESDAY

LAST OF SERIES OF LECTURES BY MRS. MECHEIN WILL BE GIVEN.

The last of the series of lectures by Mrs. Flora Mechin for the women of Morgan County will be given Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

In addition to the several topics to be discussed by Mrs. Mechin, Tennis Tidwell, City Attorney of Albany, will make an address to the women. The women are very grateful for the assistance the local men are giving Mrs. Mechin.

On Wednesday night at 7:30 will be the closing session. This session will be a general review of the three days work, the opening of the question box and the demonstration in voting.

The women who are missing these helpful lectures are being deprived of an opportunity that is very valuable. It is hoped that all the women of the county can avail themselves of the benefits of this last day's session.

WILSON MAY CALL UPON G.O.P. LEADER NAME SPOKESMEN MENTIONED BY HIM

President Expected to Make Further Inquiries of Senator Harding.

INTEREST AGAIN TURNS TO CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Secretary Tumulty Says He Has Not Seen President on Subject.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President Wilson may call upon Senator Warren G. Harding to name the "spokesmen" of the French people who, the Republican candidate stated, had approached him and urged that the United States lead the way to an association of nations, it was learned at the white house today.

Secretary Tumulty stated that he had not seen the president and did not know what his plans were. However, others close to the white house, indicated they expect the president to call on Senator Harding to name the "spokesmen."

With France apparently out of the controversy, interest again today turned to the president in the clash between the chief executive and Senator Harding over the Republican presidential candidate's statement that he had been formally approached by spokesmen of the French people, asking that America lead the way for an association of nations.

INCIDENT CLOSED

(International News Service) MARION, O. Oct. 19.—Senator Harding will spend the closing days of the campaign in Ohio, it was definitely announced at his headquarters here today. It was said the French incident was a closed book. Senator Harding's reply to President Wilson, saying he had been approached by spokesmen of the sentiment of France, instead of the French government, was accepted as closing the incident.

MEETINGS SOON

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Conferences between representatives of France and the United States to discuss the terms of a voluntary association of nations will be held in the near future, according to a statement made here today by Senator J. I. France, of Maryland, who came to Chicago to deliver an address before the Credit Men's Association.

Senator France announced he had been approached by a representative of France to inaugurate a movement to arrange meetings to discuss such an association of nations.

COMMITTEE SENDS $118 TO CAMPAIGN FUND FOR GOV. COX

The committee of Albany business men, who recently conducted a drive for funds with which to aid the Democratic campaign, forwarded $118 to national headquarters, it was announced today.

Like the other funds collected here, the money will be used in carrying the message of Democracy to the voters of the doubtful states, in behalf of the candidacies of Cox and Roosevelt.

Homes Wanted for Baptist Delegates

The housing committee for the Baptist state convention, which meets in the First Baptist church, Decatur, in November, is continuing its work of listing homes for the delegates. Citizens, who will entertain a delegate, and have not been reached by the committee, have been asked to communicate with Rev. Davison or with Chairman W. W. Fussell.

WOMEN RUSHING TO QUALIFY FOR BALLOT

Crowd Lines Lobbies of Courthouse as Registration Books Are Opened for First Time in the Twin Cities—Frances C. McGregor First to Register.

Another time-worn precedent went into the discard today when the women of Albany and Decatur began registering at the courthouse to qualify themselves for the ballot. After spending several days at other points in the county, the board of registration, composed of Chairman McGregor and Registrars Bean and Edwards, opened the books here this morning at 8 o'clock.

Before two hours had passed, approximately fifty female voters had been added to the qualified list of electors of Morgan County and the number was increasing rapidly as the day advanced.

To Mrs. Frances C. McGregor fell the honor of being the first resident of the Twin Cities to register here. Her registration was followed within a short time by that of Marguerite Bloodworth, Mabel B. Nesbitt, Lizzie T. Houston and Pearl C. Murray in the order named.

Other early morning registrants were: Ethel S. Moore, Jesse Lewis Smith, Jennie W. Knight, Thelma M. McGehee, Irene Norwood, Ella Kirk Baker, Bertie Verner, Henrietta K. Alexander, Mary M. Neville, Mary Elliott, Argie C. Bowles, Rena Trestler, Clara A. Cortner, Sallie J. Murphy, Anna L. Gillam, Anna M. James, Italyne Moles, Ida Kigore, Lillian Burkes, Callie Bass, W. L. Tipton, Julia Holesapple, Frances C. Newlin, Mary A. Williams, Sarah E. Williams, Annie Augusta Murphy, Nora Toon, Almande B. Morrow, Margaret C. Broadus, Hattie A. Lide, Dallis Gillam, Virginia Pride.

While many women took advantage of the opportunity to qualify at the first four points visited by the registration board, registration was slightly lighter in the county than had been expected.

At Falkville, where the books were first opened, approximately 100 women qualified; at Somerville 40 registered; at Hartselle 500 registered; at Danville 85 registered.

Tell Age Or Pay
The feminine mind today was torn between the natural desire for economy and retention of the secret of her age. One must go. Under the new qualification act women are required to either tell their correct age, or pay roll tax, provided they are near the 45 years age limit. They are required to certify that they are above 21 years of age. In order to avail themselves of the limitation provision, after the 45 mark has been reached, they are required to divulge that fact, or continue to pay $1.50 a year poll tax.

Courthouse Crowded
The courthouse this morning was crowded. The lobbies were filled with a long line of women, awaiting their turn before the registration board. The influence of suffrage was felt for the first time here today. The lobbies lost some of their sombre appearance and were livened with a touch of color as the "registration parties," most important features of this week's social calendar, began to make their appearance.

While today's crowd was large, tomorrow's is expected to be still more numerous. Many women, believing that Tuesday would bring a mad rush to the registration booths, awaited Wednesday before attempting to qualify.

Local Fans May See Game Friday

Local football fans may have an opportunity to see their first game of the season Friday. After recuperating from the Massey contest, which resulted in a number of minor injuries to the local squad, the Albany high team has recuperated and is attempting to arrange a game for the local gridiron the latter part of the week.

Steamer Nears Completion Here

The new steamer, to be used by the Walker interests at a ferry at the Bank street wharf, is nearing completion in the ship yards near the tannery. The boat will be ready to be commissioned in a short time.

WEATHER
Probably cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

PARLIAMENT FACES AN EPOCH MAKING MEETING RIVALLING 1914 'WAR SESSION'

Premier Lloyd George Promises to Make Statement Before Commons.

COAL STRIKE CRISIS IS PAST, PAPERS BELIEVE

Situation Featured by More Optimism as Settlement Looms Nearer.

(International News Service) LONDON, Oct. 19.—Two demonstrations, one in behalf of Irish freedom and the other against unemployment, ushered in the new session of parliament this afternoon. Warned by the rioting which marked Monday's demonstration, all available police reserves were massed about Whitehall and Parliament buildings.

Great crowds blocked the streets. Just as the house of commons was being called to order, a procession of men and women marched through the streets, bearing banners with such inscriptions as "hands off Ireland". A large number of unemployed men and women broke up a meeting of the London county council. They were ejected and made a noisy demonstration on the streets outside. Premier Lloyd George addressed commons and outlined a scheme for the alleviation of unemployment. He was cheered by the members.

A revival of yesterday's unemployed riots was nipped in the bud this afternoon when the police broke up an attempt of demonstrators to march upon Bow street where the famous old police court is located.

(International News Service) LONDON, Oct. 19.—British parliament reassembled today after a nine weeks holiday for a session that promises to be one of epoch importance. Not since the "war session" in 1914 have questions of such gigantic importance confronted the house of commons.

The parliamentary situation is made more acute by the great unemployment demonstration in Downing street when more than 100 persons were wounded in fighting with the police. Premier Lloyd George promised a deputation from the army of unemployed to make a statement, suggesting relief measures, in commons this afternoon. In addition to unemployment, the national coal strike and the Irish situation are two other domestic questions of staggering importance, calling for parliamentary action.

Papers Optimistic
Newspapers took a much more optimistic view of the coal strike situation today than they did yesterday. The Daily Express believes the strike will be confined to the miners and will not spread. The Daily Express said: "The railway men and transport workers will not strike unless the miners request it. There is less indication today that it is likely to happen."

One of the chief leaders of the miners expresses the conviction that the finish of the strike will be in sight by the end of the week, said The Daily News. There is good reason to believe that the government and miners will again be in conference in a day or two more with the real hope of discovering a basis of settlement.

Sing Red Song
Coal strike disorders, during which Welsh miners sang the revolutionary song "The Red Flag," were reported today from Pandy, Wales. This was the first outbreak since the strike started Saturday night at midnight. The police attempted to break up the demonstration of miners, but the latter resisted and fighting followed. Stones were thrown and many windows were broken.

Parliament building and all other government structures were under heavy police guard as a result of the outbreak Monday afternoon. Mounted police patrolled Downing street and the thoroughfares around the parliament building.

EMBARRASSING HARDING

If the presidential campaign had many more days than the allotted two weeks, to run Senator Harding would hardly be able to enjoy the fruits of victory, should he win. He would be a nervous wreck.

Harding's steam roller has been going in both directions and the candidate-engineer's nervous system has been badly shattered trying to keep his eyes on each end of the track. In one direction are the Borah-Johnson opponents of the league of nations. In the other are the Taft-Roosevelt followers who desire a league.

The candidate, in the meantime, has been placed in the position of saying today what he must repudiate tomorrow. The American public derived quite a good deal of amusement from Harding's flop in the west to the opponents of the league and his flop back in the east to his "association of nations." In the west he declared he had no international constructive program. Back on the old front porch, his confidence somewhat restored, he pleaded for his "association." The public patience was tried to some extent, its true, by the wobbly opinions of a man put forth by a leading political party as presidential timber. But the public, ever forgiving, might have overlooked these errors of judgment. The public realizes the limitations on personal will power which have been thrown around the Republican nominee.

There is hardly the excuse of political expediency, however, for the latest "stunt" of the G. O. P. standard bearer.

In an address at Green Castle, Ind., Senator Harding is quoted in press dispatches as declaring he had been approached by a representative of France, urging the United States to take the lead in forming an "association of nations for securing peace."

Had the Republican candidate really been approached by a representative of the French government, it would, indeed, have been a feather in the cap of the nominee and a blow at the league of nations. Harding, perhaps, realized that when he made the statement. Unfortunately, however, the statement, if made, was untrue.

Still more unfortunately for him, France officially denied it.

Rather an embarrassing position for a presidential nominee!

HOLD YOUR COTTON

Senator B. B. Comer, who led the fight against the Wall street cotton gamblers in the recent Congress and who has offered to loan a large sum of money to cotton growers to enable them to hold their product, urges the farmers of the South to withhold their cotton from the market. He says:

"If the farmers don't quit selling cotton there is no telling what the market may do. The mills cannot sell any goods as long as cotton is going down, and consequently cannot buy any cotton. If the farmers will quit selling then the market will rectify itself. Hold until the cows come home. Cotton is now on the toboggan and will reach the bottom only when the farmer stops selling."

A TOOL OF THE CABAL

The belief is prevalent among Harding's opponents that his own belief and his own individuality are sunk in what is usually called, I believe, "the best thought of a Republican party," that he is being dictated to by other people and that even his speech is not his own. The first man close to Harding that I questioned about this informed me that it was all preposterous nonsense. But the second man whom I questioned, who is also in position to know, told me that the first man was writing all of Harding's speeches.—Roger Lewis, in Collier's, after a visit to the front porch.

Too bad Mr. Lewis neglects to name his informers.

There never has been any question in the minds of men who have compared the few speeches of the Republican candidate in the United States Senate with his campaign pronouncements that the latter were the offspring of other brains.

George MacAdam, Harding's biographer, in The World's Work for October, writes:

One of the few instances in which Harding revealed that vertebral weakness which is the one material infirmity in his character, which is meeting the prohibition issue—or, shall we say, in facing the Anti-Saloon League.

Harding's record in the Senate discloses the fact that not a single piece of national legislation bears his imprint. In the seven sessions of six-year tenure of office he introduced 139 bills, none of which were of national importance, and 87 of which were private pension bills.

Is there anything in the record of the Republican candidate which inspires confidence? Has he ever done anything to indicate that he will be other than a servile tool?

Harding's closest friends, biographers and political advisers admit that he lacks backbone and decision.

Does America need in the days of reconstruction a man of clear vision, one who will meet the issue squarely, or one who will pass the buck?

Do you business men and farmers, who already are beginning to pay the price of deadlocked government, want the affairs of this nation turned over to the lean and hungry political heirs of Mark Hanna?

If you would employ a gelatine-spined individual to conduct your private business, cast your vote for Harding and look to the senatorial cabal for relief. If you want a business man for President, who has a record of achievement in private and public life second that of no other man who has sought the office; if you want a man who will fight the hold himself accountable any to the great American public, cast your vote for Cox.—Nashville Tennessean.

Japan refuses to go into naval disarmament agreement with the U. S. because we do not belong to the league of nations. Her reason would appear to be a good one.

It would be as hard to make free speech a crime among men and women as it would be to make rabbit chasing a criminal procedure for a hound dog.

It would never have done for any of the English statesmen now at work over there, to have known in advance, they would have to tackle the Irish question or the coal strike.

President Barrett, of the Farmers Union, Governor Harding of the federal reserve board, and Secretary of Agriculture Houston are reported to have agreed that if hell must pop, "she will just have to pop."

Herbert Hoover has declared: "America needs a national program to control this downward readjustment and to protect our industries from ruin." Talk is inexpensive even that of the renowned Herbert Hoover.

The up-to-date news gatherers who wrote advance notices to the effect that Harding would refuse to debate with Governor Cox were betting on a sure thing.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

Despite its many heavy falls, the world is moving heavenward. Those "of the earth earthy" cannot permanently stay the foot steps of "Humanity." The tyrannical Egyptians drowned many in the Red sea, but the van-guard of our present Christian civilization reached the land of Promise. Throughout history, ALWAYS, armies and force have failed and the wisdom of men like Moses has prevailed. Stated in another way—You cannot adjourn the ten commandments! You cannot suspend the New Testament law of Christ: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." In the present great conflict in England—if Lloyd George is right, and a council of a certain class of workers has indeed attempted BY FORCE, to bring Britain to her knees, this covenant will be broken; FORCE will FAIL. But if the spokesman of the British Government is wrong, and the miners are attempting to clear the road for humanity, and to uphold inalienable human RIGHTS, Lloyd George will fail just as surely as King John surrendered to British Yeoman at Runnymede.

If there are those who are astounded and dismayed at the storm and conflict of our times, let them take heart! Consider two simple illustrations: when mighty chariot racers are making their preliminary trials for a FAIR start, there is great confusion and some times destruction, then the final steady race for the prize is run. Second: Do you expect the infant child to learn to walk without many falls and bruises? Now for the first time in history all the people—i. e., the mighty infant "HUMANITY" has attempted to walk, and to walk uprightly! He seeks to be his brother's keeper, a thing scornful Cain refused. In industrial matters humanity has heard the call of Edward Markman's "Man With The Hoe." He desires democracy and equal rights in industry. He is sick and tired of little overlords, who are ignorant and selfish. And also "humanity desires to pull his own weight." He wants no more of the "crawling" activities; and of the waiting "on Prince's favors." For "Humanity" knows to his deep sorrow, that Shakespeare was absolutely right: "Unhappy is that poor man, who waits on Prince's favors, for indeed, betwixt that sweet aspect and the smiles he would aspire to, there more pangs and fears than wars and women bear! Yes, Humanity has struggled to his feet. He may fall from grace now and then—But see! he is moving forward. And he is headed as straight as he may go toward the goal of political, industrial and individual freedom! How foolish to try to stay his march! As well tell a child not to walk. The attempt of the radical brainless element, and of the selfish reactionaries to head off and defeat the league of nations is a case in point—of "trying to prevent the infant 'humanity' from walking!"

But we must not only refuse to stop Humanity; we must encourage him. We must help set his feet moving along the straight path of righteousness! And we must do more than that. We must encourage humanity! We must hold out our arms to him as a kind neighbor would to the toddling infant that is trying to walk! But our greatest duty to Humanity, is to put him in the way of feeling the DIVINE impulse and power! As Bishop Beckwith said Sunday morning, "it is not the privilege" of human beings to "run" the church, or to remake humanity, but human beings can take hold of the throttle—and make an opening for the Divine power to come in. God Himself must REMAKE humanity. The world is indeed stepping heavenward, but let none of us be foolish and thoughtless enough to believe that we are moving forward of our own volition or under our own steam. It is a divine Person that must inspire and move us. We have not chosen Him, but He has chosen us. Remember that the good book says those "that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their strength, those that wait upon the Lord, shall mount up on wings as eagles, and that those that wait on the Lord 'SHALL WALK AND NOT FAINT.'"

Just In Passing

GETTING TOGETHER

"Although I have the pleasure of coming to Albany and Decatur quite frequently," said Rev. Herman L. Turner, of Sheffield. I do not recall being so impressed with the new buildings on any of my previous trips. There seems to be a strong tendency now, toward building the towns together. I hope they will ere long be one in name and fact. I am particularly pleased to hear that the church attendance in the Twin Cities is holding up, and on the increase. You can never truly appreciate your churches, unless you had some way by which you could imagine them all moved away, or closed up."

OBITUARY

On October the 9th, angels called our darling away.
On the eleventh, we laid him to rest, With his soft white hands folded across his breast.
In a beautiful casket of velvet so white,
It was so sad, but a lovely sight.
A precious one from us is gone, the voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home, which ne'er can be filled.
Those pretty blue eyes and the smiles on his face,
My darling son has gone to fill the vacant place.
Dear Clarence is gone from the world of sorrow and pain,
How could I wish my darling back again.
And I am left to mourn and weep, Because our darling fell asleep.
Sleep on, Dear Son, and take the rest.
God called you home, he thought it best.
Now dear friends, in my humble way,
I have tried to tell you how our darling passed away.
And, Oh, how this grieves my poor heart,
But we shall soon go to him where we'll never part.

COTTON MARKET

OPENS ACTIVELY

BETTER CABLES AND FOREIGN BUYING SENDS PRICE UP EARLY

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The cotton market opened active and much stronger today, initial quotations being 10 to 16 points net higher. The upturn was due to very strong cables and a more hopeful outlook, according to private messages, for a settlement of the strike of British coal miners. Cables also mentioned buying by Manchester and a better inquiry for the spot article as factors in the big rise at Liverpool. That local prices did not fully reflect the gains abroad was due, largely, to selling by New Orleans and Southern hedge selling. December rose 45 points over the lowest opening levels after the call, but met heavy offerings from the South and reached 30 points from the top, still being about 55 points net higher at the end of the first twenty minutes.

AGE OF USED CARS IS OFTEN CONFUSED

Dealer Offers to Give Accurate Information, Even to People Who Buy From Competitors.

An unusual service, in view of the fact that it is intended primarily for persons who do business with a competitor, has been announced by the Harris Motor Co., Dodge Brothers dealers in this city. The service is for the benefit of those who buy used Dodge Brothers motor cars on the open market and who are in doubt as to the age and condition of the car. "Any man who buys a used Dodge Brothers motor car, if he brings it to us for inspection, can learn definitely when the car was built," said Mr. Frank Harris of the Harris Motor Co. "While we operate a used car market ourselves we will gladly give this information because we feel that a man who owns a Dodge Brothers car is a member of the family, regardless of whether he comes in through the front or back door, and we owe him certain definite courtesies."

"Owing to the fact that Dodge Brothers cars are not built in series of models and never have shown any material change in appearance, it is often very difficult to determine just how old the car is. Therefore it is easy to make gross misrepresentation to prospective purchasers. Many a man has been told he is buying a 1919 Dodge Brothers car when in reality the car was built three or four years earlier. Unscrupulous persons occasionally resort to this practice deliberately, but very often it is done through error as persons outside our own organization have no accurate way of deciding this important point."

"Dodge Brothers have supplied us with complete records of production, so that we are enabled, through certain numbers on the car, to tell just when it was built. Therefore it is apparent that nobody is ever deceived on this point when he buys from our used car market. It is also our policy to overhaul every car we take in before putting it back on the market. We insist on having used cars in good condition before they are sold. This not only makes satisfied customers, but it tends to maintain the good reputation of Dodge Brothers motor cars."

"It would pay the public to be more careful in buying used cars. People should insist on the accurate information they are entitled to when buying. They should, above all, know just whom they are doing business with and try to determine whether their future need will and satisfaction means anything to the person they are buying from or whether immediate profit is the sole object of the deal."

"Meantime we shall be glad to help along the cause of better used cars by giving purchasers the information that will enable them to tell whether they have been honestly dealt with."—Adv.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what an Albany man says: "J. W. Ezell, Prop. grocery, 1301-4th Ave. says: 'Some years ago my kidneys became affected, I believe from a cold and sharp pains often took me in the small of my back. When I stopped or lifted anything, I would get sudden twinges through my kidneys and I couldn't rest comfortably at night. Mornings I arose unrefreshed and was usually tired. I had headaches, dizzy spells and spots continually passed before my eyes. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box and used them as directed. Two boxes entirely cured me of this trouble.'"

Above statement given April 28, 1911, and on February 28, 1918, Mr. Ezell, said: "I have had no return of kidney trouble since taking Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and I cheerfully confirm the statement I gave Doan's at that time." 60c at all dealers. Why the Audience at Masonic Theatre was so amazed by

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

This was the test made by Miss Gladys Rice last Tuesday at Masonic Theatre.

She sang. Suddenly she ceased to sing, and the New Edison took up the same song alone.

No one in the audience was able to tell Miss Rice's living voice from its Re-Creation by the New Edison.

The phonograph had achieved that marvel of marvels,—perfect realism!

Why not let us deliver today one of these New Edisons with Certificate of Authenticity? You can arrange the payment any way you desire. Step in, or telephone. There's no time to lose.

ONE MORE DAY OF VOTE INSTRUCTION

The Tuesday session of the School of Citizenship was most interesting. Mrs. Mechin giving the entire program. The women very much enjoyed the lecture on "Primaries and Conventions" and the reading of the state law on "Property Rights of Women."

Mrs. Mechin's lesson on "Parliamentary Law" was of invaluable help to the women. Interest continues to grow. There is one more day of opportunity for the women of Morgan County and those who have attended the school thus far feel that they have been doubly repaid for any inconvenience the schedule of sessions has occasioned them.

The sessions on Wednesday will be at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

HALLOWEEN BIRTHDAY PARTY

A most enjoyable children's party was given yesterday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock by Mrs. Harry Thornhill to celebrate the ninth birthday of her daughter, Vivian.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the Halloween witch impersonated by Miss Edie Murphree, who told the fortunes of the children, affording much merriment, little Pauline Peters was the fortunate tot to carry off the prize in the donkey contest. A pretty color scheme of black and yellow was effectively carried out in the dining and living rooms.

The birthday cake elaborately frosted in yellow and white with nine tiny candles of yellow made a pretty centre piece for the dining table. Crystal vases of cut flowers roses and ferns arranged on the table and buffet added the final touch to the pretty scene. Those enjoying this hospitality with the tiny honoree were Evelyn Humphrey, Grace Petty, Clara Thornhill, Jane Crow, Edna Bess Crow, Margaret Crow, Mildred Boeglen, Ruth Ross, Fannie Murphree, Elizabeth Cox, Edna Wright, Vera Stork, Pauline Peters, Mary Flowers, Katherine Thornhill, Grace Landers, Mildred Leonard, Dorothy Leonard, Nell Wells, Frances Eaves, Joe Humphrey, Collier Crow, Bernwood Boeglen, Jack Ross, James Thornhill, Willie Cox, Harry Leonard, Fre Eaves, Harry Thornhill, Raymond Thornhill and J. Dentists Condemn Gritty Tooth Pastes

Many recommending Wonderful New Tooth Cleanser

Writing in the Dental Cosmos, F. D. Miller, D.D.S. says: "With some of the much extolled preparations on the market it is easy by applying the brush to cut the tooth half through, exposing the pulp inside of two hours."

Gritty tooth pastes irritate the gums, scratch the teeth and are so coarse that they cannot reach the cracks where decay and infection start.

And they leave the most important part of the job undone. Oral hygiene does not stop with clean teeth. It is in the little gum pockets that the germs of pyorrhea and other serious mouth diseases incubate, and it is these little crevices that must be sterilized, if serious trouble is to be avoided.

Steroline is a wonderful new liquid tooth cleanser, and mouth antiseptic. Manufactured in liquid form, according to an approved and accepted formula, it is endorsed by dentists everywhere. And not only does it penetrate the narrowest cracks and so really clean the teeth, but its healing antiseptic quality has a wonderful preventive and curative effect on tender or spongy gums. Just a few drops on your tooth-brush used each day in the ordinary way, assure white strong teeth, a sweet breath and clean wholesome mouth. You will be amazed to see how refreshing Steroline is.

Steroline is sold under a money-back guarantee at all the best drug stores. Get a bottle today, try it for a week, if not completely satisfied return the cardboard box and your money will be refunded at once.

BIG IN STORY—BIG IN CAST—BIG IN PRODUCTION

DEAR OLD PETE:

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines bating out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—if you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor! And—

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously,

Marble Theatre to be Finished in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Mexico Oct. 19.—
The great unfinished marble pile, standing in the centre of the city like the ghost of the Diaz regime, called the National Theatre is to be finished, according to plans of the Government, which has $1,800,000 for the work.

The building has stood unused for ten years. It is said that one end has sunk four feet below the original level.

A number of engineers and contracting firms are trying to get the work of finishing the building. They apparently think that $1,800,000 will not be enough to finish the structure, as they want to do the work on a percentage basis.

Efforts are also being made by contractors to get the contract for the completion of the Hall of Congress.
The bare, steel skeleton of the structure has towered in the air since the days of President Diaz, the revolutions having put a stop to public works.

Hartselle News

HARTSELLE, Ala., Oct. 19.—There conditions has come to some extent, and things in general are more hopeful.

The Morgan County High football team are making preparations for their coming game with Central High at Birmingham next Saturday morning. Coach Samford expects to have his men in the pink of condition when they meet the Magic City eleven. The local boys have met the Central High upon one occasion only, and this was when they were just beginning their football experience. They were defeated in that game, but later time after that they tried to get the Central High to give them a return game, all to no avail. They are going with the determination to bring back the score on their side of the leggen. A large delegation of local citizens will make the journey with them. The boys hope to have their new suits in time for the Birmingham game.

Class No. 20 at the Methodist Sunday School morning was called upon by the superintendent for a donation of $25.00, toward a pledge the school had made to Flat Rock school of $50.
The class gave $30.00 of the pledge,
and the balance was easily raised.
Prof. J. H. Riddle is teacher.

The dust nuisance is becoming almost unbearable here. There is no facility for sprinkling the streets, and late in the evenings the dust hangs as a heavy fog. A rain would be most

S. L. Sherrill has returned from a business trip to Texas.

The Registrars were kept busy here until nine o'clock Saturday night.
The ladies were largely in evidence,
and many of them came from different parts of the country district.

ed relatives here recently. Mr. Majors was formerly a citizen of this section of country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kimbrough are occupying their newly completed residence on the east side.

Dr. W. M. Booth was at Nashville,
Tenn., on business one day recently.

The Fox Hunters of Hartselle are just waiting for J. Pluvius to bring them a little moisture before they get out after Mr. Red Fox who, no doubt, feels secure on account of the long drysness.

Dr. F. B. Sherrill and Messrs. Gilman Doss and Jno T. Cooper were at Huntsville recently attending the fair.

The annex to the Morgan County High School will soon be ready for the roof. The steam heating apparatus has already been installed for both the main and annex.

The Holland Blow Stave Co. are putting on large quantities of barrel staves here from their plant west of town.

ed City Clerk, he being elected by the

Look Beyond the First Season When You Buy Your Car

It is just as important to consider the establishment and reputation of the dealer from whom you buy a car as it is to be sure of the manufacturer's standing.

Would you buy a car which was not likely to be in the market at all after one or two seasons? Would you patronize a manufacturer whose business existed only as a temporary activity?

It is equally important that the dealer who sells you the car shall have a permanent place in his community, and be willing to accept permanent responsibility.

We are here to stay. We are constantly increasing our abilities to give proper service to those who buy a Dodge Brothers Car—a permanently established line.

The most lengthy discussion of the evening was that on the demand of the farmer's for 40 cents a pound for their cotton. It was agreed by all the speakers, that such a demand was no more than just and right. Among the other speakers of the evening were: George M. Webb, D. C. Jones, D. M. Thrasher, W. M. Thomas, H. K. Laatsch, J. J. Waddell and E. M. Johns. A number of the speakers commended the efforts of Senator Comer, to pass a bill designed to prevent cotton gambling and Senator Underwood was criticized for his alleged failure to do any thing for the benefit of the cotton farmers of Alabama.

STELLA-VITAE RIGHTS THE WRONG

This Is Your Last Chance to get your

O-Cedar Polish Mop

at The Old Price

Advance Prices Effective Nov. 1st

BUT a few days remain for you to buy an O-Cedar Mop at the old price.

Increasing manufacturing costs make the raise in price necessary if we are to continue to give you the biggest, most convenient—time, money and labor saving household utility.

The increase is only 25c—but 25c is worth saving.

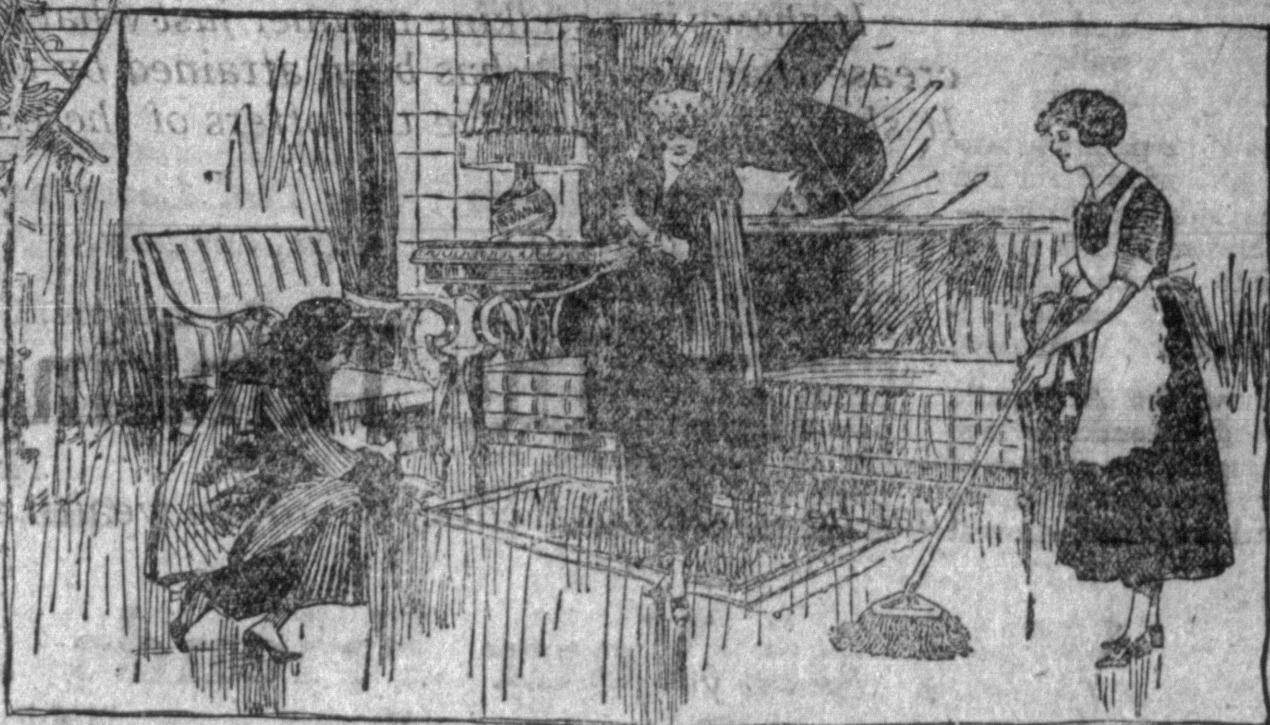

Originally, (before the war), the price of the O-Cedar Polish Mop was $1.50.

During the war, we used war materials—short length cotton—mill ends of drill—surplus steel for centers and by making the mop smaller we were able to keep the price down.

Now the sources of supply of most of these items are cut off. We must go back to before-the-war materials and pay today's prices for them. For instance cotton cord cost 14c to 16c per pound before the war. Today it costs us 58c. Handles that cost 4c in 1914 cost 12c today. Our labor costs have advanced 200%. And so on.

We will not make a mop that is not up to the O-Cedar standard. We can't continue the O-Cedar standard at present prices. So the advance of 25c is absolutely necessary for us to continue O-Cedar Mops as the millions of housewives want them.

The 25c advance in price is effective November 1st. Even if you do not need a new O-Cedar Mop just now it will pay you to buy one at your nearest store today.

Almost every woman in America knows the work—the time—and the money the O-Cedar Mop saves. And how much prettier, brighter and cleaner it makes the floors. They know it saves back-breaking stooping and bending. When you use an O-Cedar Mop your floors will be the envy of your neighbors.

Easy and Simple to Clean and Renew

Second only to the wonderful utility of the O-Cedar Mop is its simplicity. No trick to learn to wash, clean or renew it. It can be washed and cleaned without bother and muss to take it apart, and fuss and work to put together. When an O-Cedar Mop needs renewing, simply wash it in boiling water, pour a little O-Cedar Polish in the cap and let mop stand in it over night. The next morning it is practically as good as new.

Get an O-Cedar Mop today. Your dealer guarantees it to give perfect satisfaction or will return your money.

Today's Prices: $1.25, $1.50, $1.75
Prices November 1st: $1.50, $1.75, $2.00

Prices Advance on November 1st.

Conditions beyond our control have forced us to add 25c. to the selling price of every O-Cedar Mop on November 1st. Save money by buying now.

A Mail Order Catalogue in a Newspaper Office

A few days ago we happened to see a catalog of one of the big New York mail order houses on a desk in a nearby newspaper office. We made it our business to find out who it belonged to and how it came to be there.

After several inquiries we found no one who claimed ownership of the catalog. Finally we learned that it belonged to one of the artists. He had secured it for the purpose of using it as a kind of style or guide book.

We hardly thought it possible that anyone in a newspaper office would patronize a mail-order house, for, as a rule, newspaper people are about the

Most Loyal People to Home Interests that you can find.

But the fact that this big concern could afford to put out a catalog that could be used as a style book for an artist drives home a most appalling condition.

It shows in a striking manner just what vast wealth (and what elaborate means are employed to increase that wealth), has been attained by the mail-order houses from the people of different sections. It shows how attractive the offers of these houses are presented.

And it proves to

The Thinking and Loyal Citizen

that he should not contribute to the wealth and power of an institution that is making money away from the community in which he lives.

Be on your guard, don't be misled by the allurements of the attractive mail-order catalog. Your home merchants can give you better values and your money will stay where you will derive some of the good from it.

A Sugar Saver

Aged Resident Has Narrow Escape

I was at my work, my limbs became numb, I got dizzy and faint, my ears seemed stopped up. I had been troubled with gas on my stomach and severe bloating after meals. Doctors failed to help me. One dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, recommended by the corner druggist, proved a life-saver to fit. I am continuing with it with splendid results. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—S. M. Thompson, Albany; Owl Drug Co., Decatur.—Adv.

Montana Travelers Find Way to Save Money on the R.R.

(International News Service)
HELENA, Mont., Oct. 19.—Many traveling men and others who use railroads frequently in Montana are buying tickets to points just within the boundary lines of the State, stopping over between trains and buying new tickets to destinations outside the State.

The result has been to increase sales of railroad tickets at all points in Montana for local hauls and cut down the sales of tickets outside of the State. Travelers discovered the big saving when the Montana Railroad Commission refused to grant the railroads a 20 per cent increase in rates on the grounds that a State law will not permit the increase. The commission also denied the applications of carriers to increase Pullman and parlor car fares 50 per cent.
